The content of this guide is provided ‘as-is.’ The Town of Wainwright, in whole or in part and including its employees or contractors, make no warranty, either express or implied, including but not limited to, warranties of fitness for a particular purpose or accuracy of data. In no event will the Town of Wainwright be liable for any indirect, special, consequential or other damages however caused.
Amidst a bold prairie, Wainwright is hard working, community-minded, family-first, and recreation master planned. We value what it means to be free. From our foundation lies a future where determination gets you everywhere while recognizing the value of building piles of fall leaves with a child, a game of catch with the dog, or coffee with the neighbour.

With a diversified and stable three pillar economy driven by agriculture (since turn of century), oil and gas (since 1921), and the military (since 1939 - headquarters for training army troops in Western Canada), Wainwright offers robust job prospects.

We offer opportunity for those driven to add services and/or manufacturing value to Wainwright’s oil and gas and agricultural resources. Our location at the crossroads of Highways 14 and 41, with a trade area of 40,000 people, creates robust commercial and professional service hub opportunities. Independent entrepreneurs benefit from business-friendly regulation, low business costs, and affordable housing.

Living the good life in Wainwright means local full service health service and educational infrastructure, an atmospheric Mainstreet, advanced recreational amenities and cultural celebration in our many annual events.

Get busy living. Welcome to Wainwright.

Our Vision:
Hard working. Community-minded. Family first. Wainwright’s prairie crossroads location and independent entrepreneurial spirit drive rural Alberta’s fast growing economy.

What We Value:
Safety, success, community-mindedness, reliability, trust, loyalty, generosity, friends, faith and family, pride.
Dear "Migratory Birders",

Whether you are moving off the farm into a town in east central Alberta, once lived in the area and lie awake at night thinking about a return to your roots...and life better lived, or are retiring from active military duty at Wainwright Garrison, come "home" to Wainwright. Live affordably – with disposable income left to pursue life's passions.

If you need a hospital we can fix you. If you want to do 18 again we have a golf course. If you like the bull we have a Stampede. If you don't like the bull we have a neighbourly extended family who has your back. If you need to shop or eat out and about – we have that too. We have...the good life.

Signed,

Town of Wainwright
It's a tough slog, that average 20 minute commute in Alberta. Car fumes. Snaking lines of traffic. The inch forward. Time wasted on…nothing. Welcome to Wainwright, where average commute time is 5.9 minutes. That adds up to 117 hours a year to explore the joys of wondering what to do with yourself.

  No, as long as the items are recyclable they can be placed in the same blue bag with larger cardboard flattened and placed underneath.

  Only plastic items with a #1 or #2 on them are recyclable.

• What about coffee cups, pizza boxes, flour bags, pet food bags?

There are two reasons to pursue business opportunities in Wainwright:

ENTREPRENEURIAL FREEDOM
Affordable land, low business costs, amenable regulatory processes, access to hard-working labour, and affordable housing enable prosperity.

LIVE THE GOOD LIFE
A quintessential rural Alberta Town makes living just a little more laid-back-comfortable like an old friend. A character Mainstreet provides atmosphere. Rapid growth of retail and services activity puts virtually anything you need within a five minute drive. Our recreation services are advanced for a community our size – including twin arenas, indoor pool, curling, splash park, an equine centre, golf course, and RV park. Events bring us together – including one of the top 5 rodeos in Canada.

SECTOR INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Retail Trade and Business Services
Wainwright has reached a critical mass where it is now a sub-regional service centre (with corresponding services growth) for a trade area of 40,000 people. Commercial development has been very active in the last several years and is expected to continue. Our highway commercial offers developments such as McDonalds, Walmart, Tim Hortons, Canadian Tire, The Source, DQ, Boston Pizza, Ramada, Best Western, A&W, KFC and Dominos Pizza. Our downtown core has many niche stores as well as brand names including Suzanne & Jenny’s and Warehouse One.

The Town of Wainwright actively encourages local business retention and expansion, knowing the majority of economic development investment in any community is locally-based.

VALUE-ADDED AGRICULTURE
The Battle River Alliance For Economic Development (BRAED, braedalberta.ca) completed an agricultural inventory and opportunity identification for the value-added agriculture sector in the Wainwright region:

- The region has roughly 4,600 farmers, and 126 small-scale agri-value added businesses (food products, greenhouses/market gardens, honey products, and processed meats).

- Opportunities include nutraceuticals, food ingredients/foods/food for health products (meat, grains and oilseeds, bakery product, beverage, or food ingredient-based), bio-energy (bio-diesel, ethanol, biogas), ag tourism (e.g. experiential recreational products and farm stays), and greenhouse/horticulture activity driven by fibre-in-diet/ethnic/fresh food trends and plant material to serve Alberta’s rapidly growing housing market.

OIL & GAS SERVICES / EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURING

- Oil and gas was discovered in the Wainwright area in 1921 and it has been an important economic activity ever since. Oil and gas wells continue to be drilled, and the sector has been an economic driver for the local economy in recent times.

- Industrial equipment and machinery manufacturing has a presence in the Wainwright area. This sector is primarily driven by the oil and gas industry (a key manufacturing industry in Alberta). The labour skill set also feeds opportunities in agriculture equipment, storage equipment, fabrication equipment, and defence industry equipment.

- The “Hardisty Hub,” located 40 minutes southwest of Wainwright, is a central pipeline hub where the majority of Alberta’s oil production converges for transportation to North American energy markets. The terminal complex is one of North America’s largest terminals and is the starting point of several major pipelines. The terminal has associated business and employment opportunities.

DEFENCE

- Procurement - There is opportunity to establish contracts with the Military Base and/or to subcontract with larger companies with established Base contracts for provision of food, office supplies, repair and maintenance and construction.

- Manufacturing – There is opportunity to develop precision manufacturing enterprise to service the defence industry – including manufacture of precise parts, motors, aerospace components and testing equipment.
ALBERTA

Alberta is one of the most attractive places to invest in Canada and North America. Alberta’s diverse economy, growing population and positive business environment make it an attractive investment location. Investment advantages include:

- No Retail Sales Tax
- Low Corporate Tax
- Low Personal Income Tax
- Low Fuel Taxes

Strong Economy
Highest GDP growth in Canada in the past 20 years

In terms of economic strength, Alberta punches well above its weight for its small population. Alberta has the highest GDP per hour worked ($72.30), and the highest GDP growth in Canada over the past 20 years.

Secure Business Environment

- Stable Banking System
- Safe Place for Your Money
- Pro-Business Climate

Over $180 billion worth of major projects proposed or under construction in Alberta

Talented Workforce

- Youngest Population in Canada
- Fastest Growing
- Highly Educated
- Diverse Workforce

Highest business labour productivity in Canada

Investment per capita is more than double the Canadian average

WAINWRIGHT

Large Trade Area Population - Wainwright serves an immediate trading area of 12,500 people (including Town population), and an extended trading area of 51,500 people.

Steady Population (Market) Growth

With 5.8% population growth between 2011 and 2016 and 8.25% population growth in the M.D. of Wainwright (2011-2016) immediately around the Town, population growth is higher than general Alberta growth. This is significant in context of Alberta's rural economy that has generally struggled to keep pace with rapid growth in urban Alberta.

Higher Disposable Income

Near provincial average after tax family income combined with lower cost of living leaves more disposable income in the hands of residents – supporting vibrancy of retail and business services sectors.

Skilled Workforce

48.2% of the workforce possesses some form of post-secondary trade or university certificate, diploma or degree.

Low Business Costs/Cost of Living

- Average house prices roughly 46% less than Alberta average (2018) (All types)
- Serviced industrial land prices $137,350—roughly 40% less than Lloydminster pricing
- Property tax per capita 18% below provincial (communities) median, total equalized assessment (2017) per capita 2.2% below provincial median and long term debt (2017) per capita at 0 compared to provincial media of 1090 indicates very competitive tax structure for business

Recreational Amenity

Amenities on a per capita basis (e.g. two arenas serving an immediate area population of 8,000 people) that create ease of access far superior to urban environments…and most communities.

LABOUR COSTS
Labour force wages are the single largest operational expense for the majority of enterprise. The 2017 Alberta Wage and Salary Survey assists businesses in making sound investment decisions and developing effective operational plans (alis.gov.ab.ca/wageinfo). The survey, which covers over 400 occupations, provides information on wages and salaries for full-time and part-time employees in Alberta by occupation, geographic area and industry group. It also includes information on skill shortages in the province.

Lower cost of living and rural Alberta’s hard work ethic combine to produce salaries in the Wainwright area that are competitive compared to the province.

The area surrounding Wainwright was homesteaded in 1905-06. The original townsite was established by James Dawson in 1907 and was named Denwood.

The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway (now CNR) arrived in 1908 and established a new townsite 4 km west of Denwood. The new site was to be a major divisional point and was named Wainwright after Mr. William Wainwright, 2nd Vice President of the railway. As a divisional point, it was intended that branch lines would extend from Wainwright to such places as North Battleford, Medicine Hat, Calgary and the Peace River area.

These original intentions triggered a quick growth of Wainwright, which became a Village in 1908 (pop. 450) and was incorporated as a Town on August 14, 1910 (pop. 1,000). Although the plans of the GTPR did not materialize, Wainwright maintained its position as a railroad center and became the major service center for the surrounding agriculture industry.

In 1907, to preserve the endangered bison, the Canadian Government created the original Buffalo National Park on 160 square miles of land immediately south of Town. The area was fenced and stocked with several hundred head of buffalo from Montana. The herd grew to such an extent that annual round-ups began in 1921, shipping some animals to various parts of the world and slaughtering others. The round-ups continued until 1939 when all the animals were removed and the park was turned over to the Department of National Defence (DND). By that time over 39,000 head of bison were produced in the park.

Upon possession by DND, the park was converted to a training establishment for the Canadian Army and became known as Camp Wainwright. In 1945-46, the Camp was used as a prisoner of war facility where over 1,000 German Officers were interned.

Camp Wainwright has been extensively developed over the years and is now known as Canadian Forces Base/Area Support Unit Wainwright and is one of the primary training areas in Canada, regularly hosting international exercises.

Oil and gas were discovered in the district in 1921 and since then have remained important industries for Wainwright.

When the railway went through East Central Alberta in 1912, the Village of Chauvin was incorporated. Chauvin served as the main distribution centre for this area and today, it is a thriving community populated with rich agricultural farmland and a robust oilfield industry. These industries support our families so in turn, we offer newly developed, extra large, wide-open residential lots with plenty of room to live, play and grow! The opportunities for businesses and commercial properties are endless.

Explore Chauvin’s rich history through a walking tour of several landmarks: The Village Office, Encompass Credit Union - Chauvin Branch (original Merchants Bank Building), Senior’s Drop In Centre (former movie theatre) and several homes from as early as 1918. In addition, there are two former school buildings, Roros and St. Aubins. The Chauvin community supports the Westminster Presbyterian Church, the Chauvin Gospel Centre and the Community of Christ Church (in nearby Ribstone). But......standing proudly near the middle of the Village is the historical Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Parish which is second to none! A visit to this facility is well worth your time!

The local businesses within Chauvin offer residents and visitors an interesting array of products and services. Businesses you will find while browsing the Main Street would be a grocery store, a cafe, a hardware store, a liquor store, a couple of banks and a gas station, but we also have unique businesses such as a fitness centre! Expand your tour to the perimeters of the Village and find a fuel key lock site as well as a very bountiful greenhouse with a U-pick throughout the entire summer months.

We encourage you to not only visit our webpage but also to visit us in person. Our door is always open at the Village Office and you would be welcomed with open arms. Have your photo taken with Chauvin’s roadside attraction, the World’s Largest Softball! Or, if you are looking to relocate - we have just the answer for you!

We are proud to be part of a community where people care about the welfare of all members.

Tough as nails. Family-fierce.
A landscape sentinel. Enduring.
No nonsense. 3% fat lean.

Stoic stare downs with the definition of resolve.
Not something you would want to try to milk.

One can imagine freedom’s thunderous rebellion of hooves across azure sky prairie.

Our furry ancestors aren’t so unlike us.
Where we wrestle with prairie there is a will, there is a way.

Get your freedom back. Join our herd.
